*A year of growing and changing
 A year of self-expression, of thought
 Controversy and doubt brought us together
 In the need for involvement*

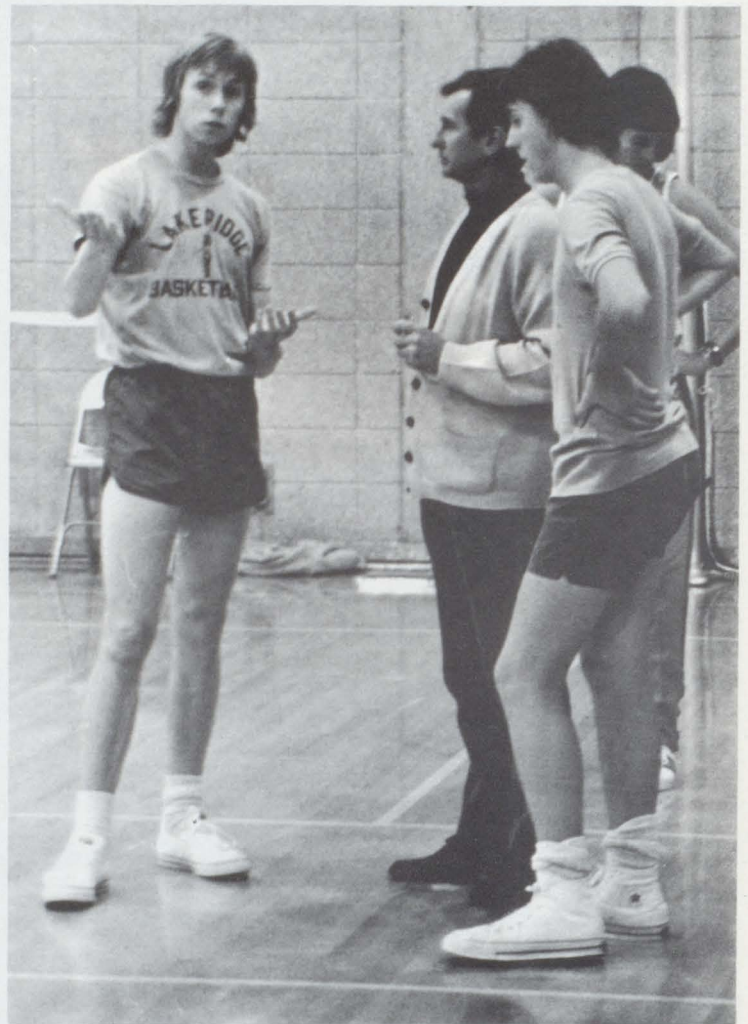

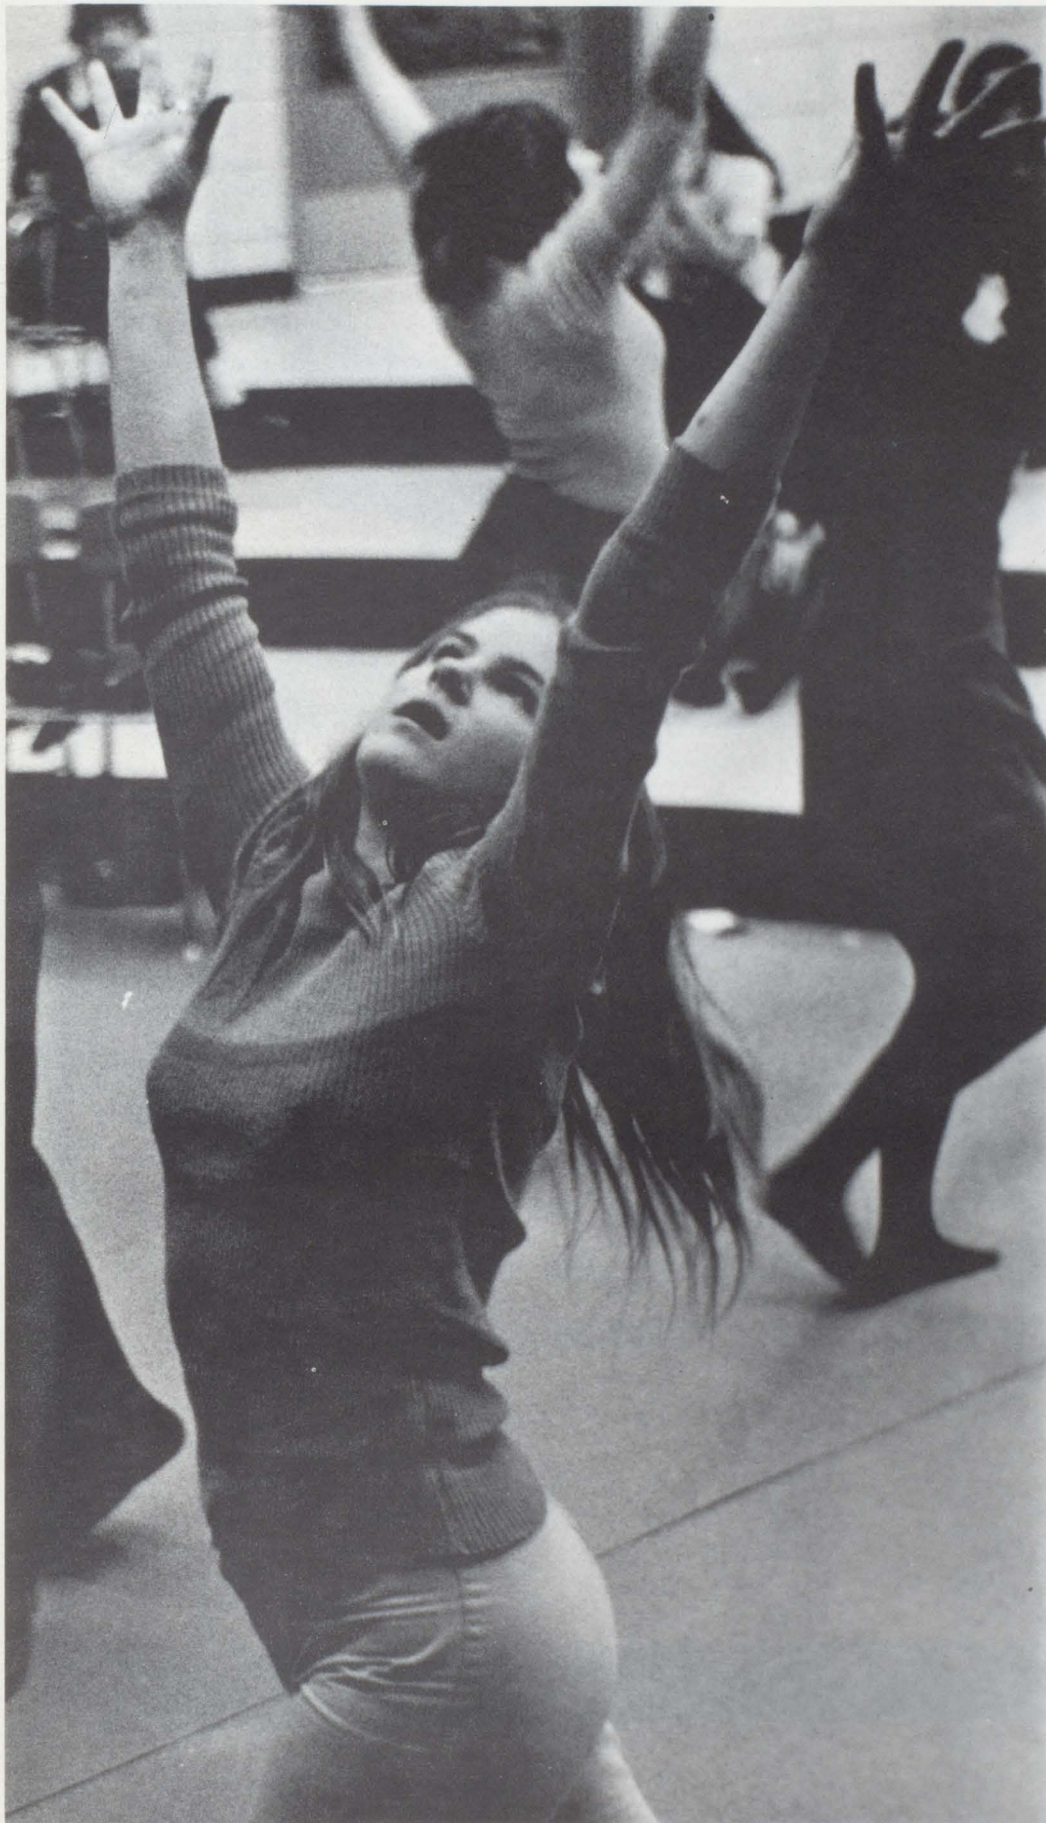

*The involvement grew and we formed new friends and through them we found in ourselves
a new depth of understanding*

*New experiences brought many surprises
The bonds of friendship were strengthened
And our feelings of oneness were reflected
In the smiles

Arena Scheduling

Due to the great success of arena scheduling last year, it was repeated this year.

The first day of school, seniors, juniors, sophomores and finally freshmen filed through the sweltering boys' gym to sign up for their classes. Students also paid their fees and picked up their '73 year-books.

Senior Omega members manned the boxes where people picked up their class cards, which was different from last year.

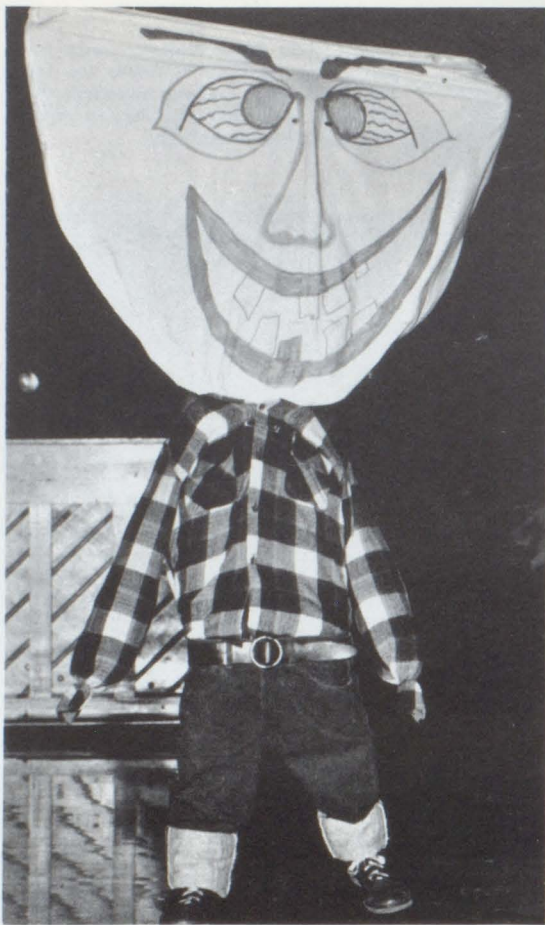

Although the set-up was confusing and frustrating to some freshmen, everyone got through and was ready to start the next day with his new schedule.

Homecoming

In keeping with the current Western trend, Lakers picked a theme of "After the Gold Rush" and plunged right into Homecoming the third week of school, one of the earliest homecomings on record.

By planning homecoming early, Lakers hoped to take advantage of the nice September weather and avoid the November rains. The plan nearly backfired as it rained early in the week, but it did clear off for the parade Friday afternoon.

Sidelined from football with an injury, Gary Morean turned his talents toward becoming Master of Ceremonies. He performed many wonderful feats with his trusty horse, Bessie.

Amid shrieks of approval, the 1973 Homecoming princesses were announced on Friday, September 14. The following Friday, just before the annual parade got on its way, last year's Queen, sophomore Michelle Sweet, relinquished the crown to junior princess Pam Stout.

The two senior princesses were Madeline Wright and Denise Ehman. Debbie Lawrence represented the junior class along with the queen. The sophomores chose Joyce Goudy and Jill Miller as their princesses. The freshman class chose Kirsten Wright and Lisa Arbin as its very first princesses.

Everyone had his chance to do his thing during Homecoming this year.

Monday was Farmer's Day. On Tuesday it was Everything-You've-Always-Wanted-to-Be Day. Chris Lorette won Mother of the Year honors while Bob Alexander disguised himself as Superman.

Wednesday was the happiest day of the week as everyone took part in Wear-a-Smile day. Thursday it was Cowboys and Indians.

Friday the traditional Homecoming mums were given out, and the Goldiggers entertained at the assembly that saw Pam Stout chosen queen. The weatherman held off for the parade, but it rained that night as LO lost to Reynolds.

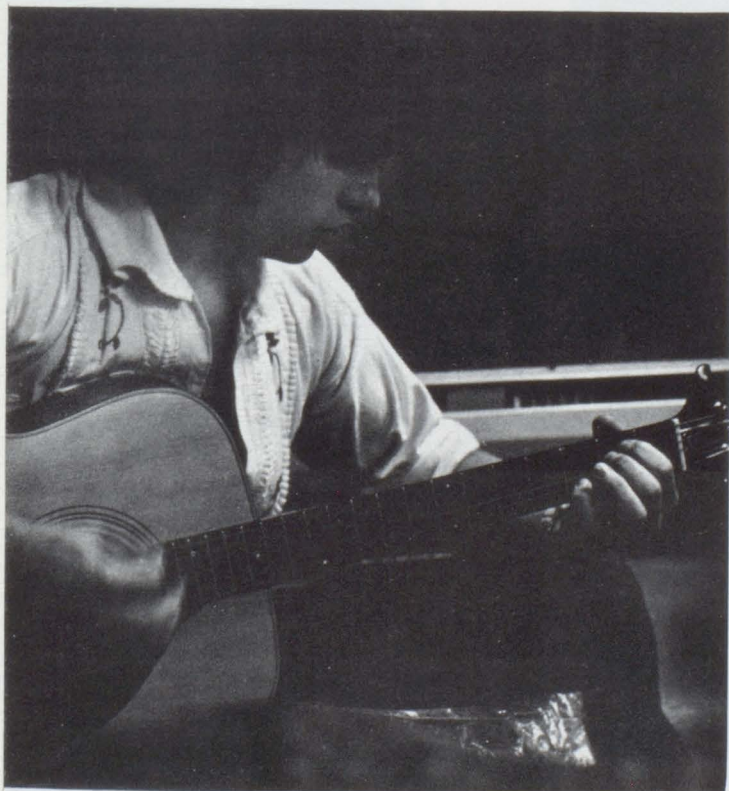

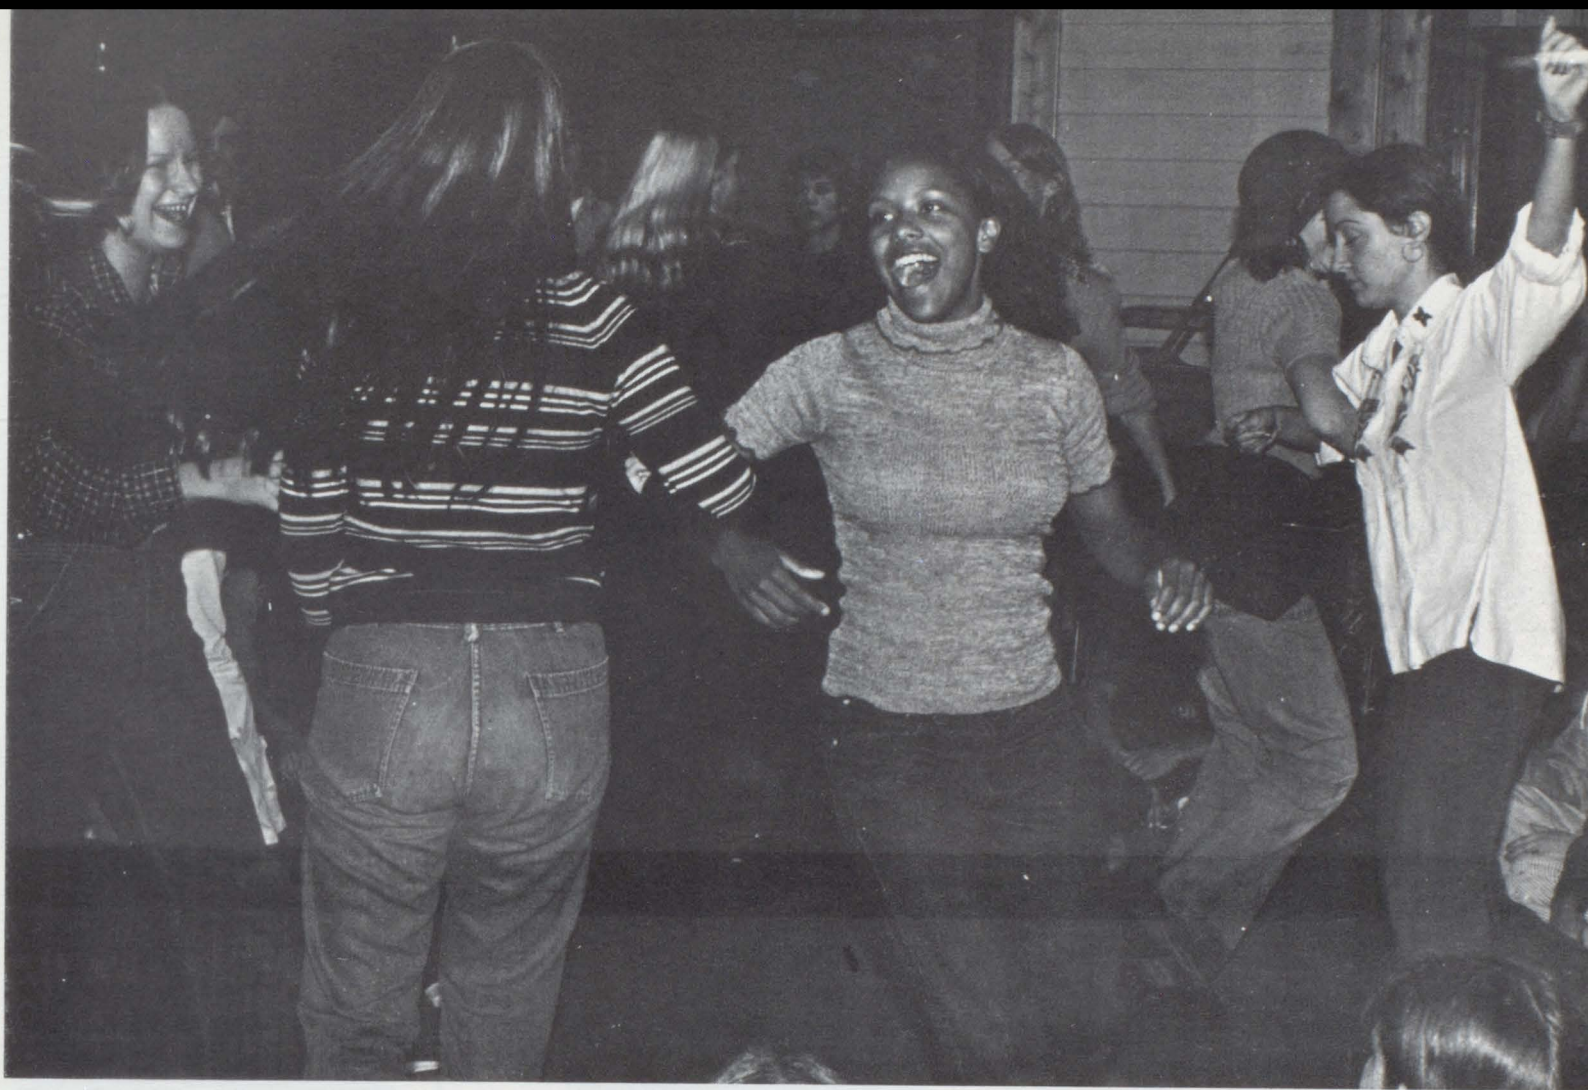

The Moondogs were featured at the after-game dance.

TOP: Ann Swearingen and Gail Christian lead the square dancing.
 BOTTOM: Ralph Cunningham entertains with several guitar numbers.

Leadership Workshop

Student leaders along with administrators packed off to Sports Acres early on Saturday morning. Even though it was the day after Homecoming, people were still able to muster enough energy and thought to make it all worthwhile.

Topics of discussion included faculty involvement in student government and changes in student rights and responsibilities. These discussions were very productive and united the leaders toward reaching some of the goals brought out.

Highlighting the weekend were folk dancing Saturday night, a free-for-all talent show, and several raids through Cabins A and B by Cabins D and E and vice-versa. There was also a huge water fight following the talent show, and almost all got involved whether they wanted to or not. Also a game of coed football, which was dubbed the "Mud Bowl", was played in the pouring rain.

Sunday morning everyone got the opportunity to take aim at the administrators with questions and comments during the administrative "hot seat".

Forty Carats

To open its season, LO chose this smash Broadway comedy by Jay Allen.

The play deals with the romance of a 40-year old divorcee who fell in love with a youth of 22. Upon returning from Greece, where this love affair occurred, she still had to face the problems that faced her when she left--what to do with a 17-year old daughter, a mother of eccentric nature, an ex-husband whose career was quickly fading, and the affections of a 45-year old rich Texan who is courting her.

And then the youth she met in Greece shows up to date her daughter!

Fall Assemblies

Fall rally put forth a great amount of effort in order to make the pep assemblies more interesting for all. By introducing new types of competition within the school such as the frozen-spoon-on-a-string relay to initiate new teachers, dropping-the-egg-on-the-face contest, tug of wars, and a freshman-senior introduction via an interdental rope of licorice, the rally succeeded in bringing Laker spirit back.

Although the fall season was dominated by Friday pep assemblies, the monotony was broken by a 2-hour assembly on shoplifting. One speaker, above all, drew a reaction from the students. That speaker was the Vice-President of securities at Fred Meyer, Mr. Dehann.

Christmas

Christmas festivities got underway as students cast their ballots during their lunch period for the princesses. Seniors selected Marge Handy and Mimi Herrle; Marge Schenk and Kathy Kamman were junior selectees; sophs chose Mardonna Anderson and Kris Morehouse, and freshmen had Randi Underdahl and Liz Shirley as their representatives on the Christmas court.

There were several events this year that really raised the Christmas spirit in our school. For one, there was the Canned Food Drive in which LOHS finally came out victorious over Tigard.

Also the decor of the halls was helped by decorating doors for class competition in the annual decorating contest.

To round out the activities, there was the Christmas assembly in which the choir, Windjammers, Poop Decks, and band expressed their spirit for Christmas in a musical way. The teachers also gave an amusing skit trying to find the spirit of Christmas.

Friday, Christmas MC's Darrell Rustum and Jeff Strothers announced the 1973 Christmas Queen, Marge Schenk. Topping off the festivities was the "Silver Bell Ball" featuring the group Vegas.

Vocal Music

Interest in the choir soared to a new all-time high as Mr. Larry Cunningham came in and really took over.

Despite the gasoline shortage, the choir journeyed to Salem in December to sing in the State Capital Rotunda. It also went there for an exchange assembly with South Salem before hosting the Salem school here later in the spring. More than 100 members were enrolled in musical activities by the end of the year.

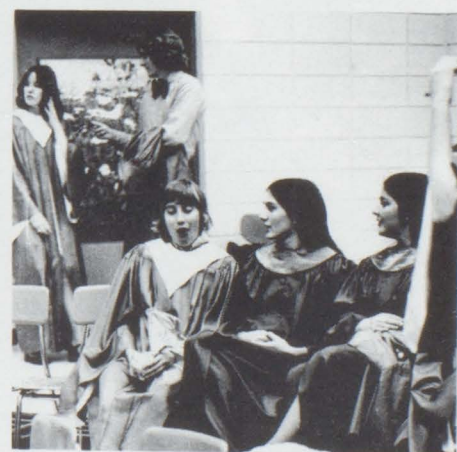

Two new groups were formed and immediately became very popular. The Poop Decks (Gary Morgan, Jim Brown, Ole Nordling, and Kevin Morrison) sang such barber shop favorites as "In a Shanty in Old Shanty Town," "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top," "Sioux City, Sue," and "Hello, Dolly."

The Docketts (Gail Christian, Marge Schenk, and Jill Sorenson) went in for songs like "The Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boy" and "In the Mood."

Besides the usual fall, spring and Christmas concert, the choir also sang at Lloyd Center at Christmas time.

Instrumental Music

Spirit Week

To create spirit for the basketball team during the middle of its long season, spirit week was held. It was a week of fun, festivities, and class competition.

A princess was chosen from each class. The class that had the most points at the end of the week got to have its princess named Queen at the halftime of the Centennial game.

Each class had a wall or hall to decorate cleverly as well as present a simple skit during both lunch periods. Soph Marie Larson ruled over festivities as LO upset the undefeated and league-leading Eagles.

Gypsy

Because the musical comedy was selected by the International Thespian Society as one of the top musicals to be performed on the high school level, the cast was invited to the International Thespian Conference at Muncie, Indiana during the summer.

This honor is even more significant when it is realized that only one musical from across the United States is invited to perform at the Conference. The cast and orchestra will perform before nearly 2,000 Thespians.

Even the faculty got into the act, performing "Gypsy" one night after the regular performances by the students. And then it was performed again by the students in the spring, along with various other fund-raising drives, to finance the trip to Indiana.

Ann Swearingen starred in the role of Momma Rose, with Lisa Fleischaan as Gypsy and Robin Wall as Baby June.

TOP: Even the faculty got into the gypsy act. Two of the better performers were Mrs. Milli Hoelscher (Mama Rose) and Jess Rhodes (Pop). BOTTOM: The farm boys added plenty of color to the play.

Winter Assemblies

In addition to the various pep assemblies, there were several others that seemed to meet all the students' needs. Prior to an evening concert, the First Gear entertained and had a twist contest.

Four Korean girls sang and danced in appreciation for all the help given their country by the US in the past. And visiting AFS students told interesting accounts of their homelands and experiences in the US.

Two Lewis and Clark students did a pantomime, showing what Basketball Coach Sonny Long's childhood was like.

TOP: First Gear entertained at a winter assembly. BOTTOM: Gary Morean, Mr. Soule, a student teacher in the history department, and Maria Knauss all competed in the twist contest.

Scarborough Fair

The weatherman really put a damper on the carnival this year.

The closing day students had to brave the wind and rain if they wanted to ride the Octopus, Scrambler, or Paratrooper.

But, on Friday and Saturday there was plenty of activity as bargain-seekers looked through various "white elephants" and the wide selection of used books. Baked goods were also available, and the garden shop had many items for spring planting.

Granny's Attic featured hand-made items like jewelry, macrame, pillows, and calligraphy.

Pilettes

Under the excellent leadership of Mrs. Nikki Squires, the Pilettes entertained at home football and basketball games. The precision and dance drill team made up all its drills and formations to its own music.

The Pilettes even entered drill competition involving the entire state. "Smoke on the Water" was one of their more popular numbers.

Debbie Fox served as president assisted by Dru Dietz, vice-president, and Claire LeChevallier, secretary.

May Fete

May Fete opened with "Twins Day" and dress-alike, look-alikes walked the halls to teenybopper music by Donny Osmond and David Cassidy. On Tuesday, the music went Hawaiian and sunglasses and visors were the popular items.

Wednesday was Teacher-Switch Day with seniors finally getting their chance to show off their vast knowledge. The music was from the 20's and 30's.

All-American band tunes floated through the halls Thursday as Lakers decked themselves out in red, white, and blue. A long lunch hour that day enabled everyone to eat together and make final preparations for the performance before parents that night.

Finally on Friday Queen Robin Wall was crowned and the skits were performed before the student body. The senior class again won the award for having the best skits although the judges had a hard time since the entire quality of the skits seemed to be much higher this year.

Tryouts-Elections

Art Show

"Barnyard Gallery," this year's annual art exhibit, not only included drawings, prints, paintings, ceramics, and jewelry, but expanded to include industrial arts, as well as home economics and photography projects.

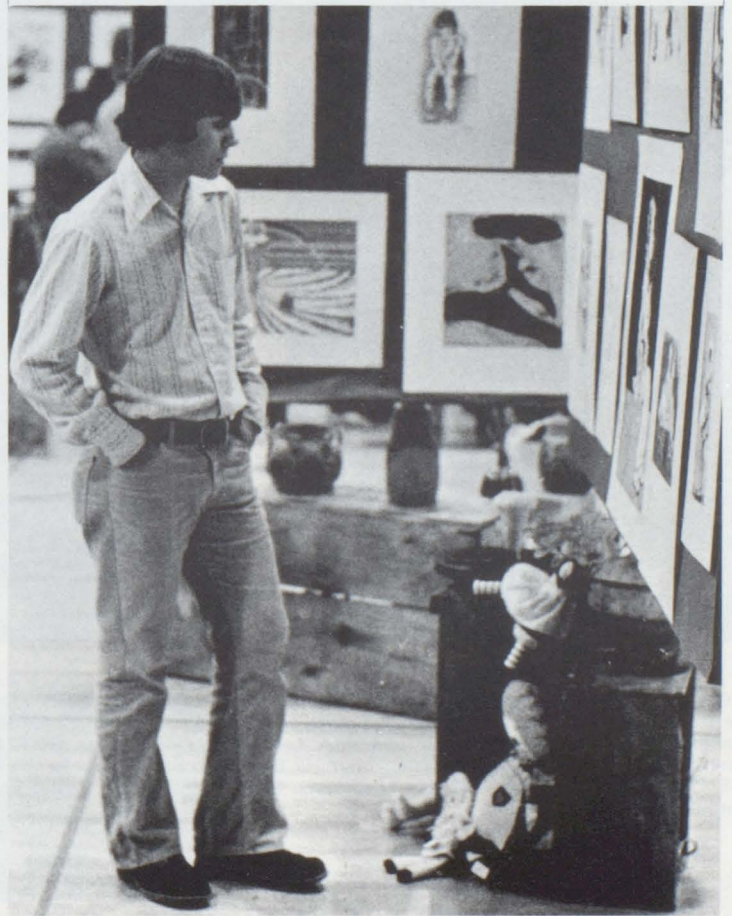

There were also students demonstrating oil painting, pot throwing, and silk screen printing.

Intramurals

Encore II

Following the similar format as Encore I last year, Encore II relied on the cabaret nightclub style show to display their musical talent. Kevin Lindsey and Gary Morean were MC's. The songs and comedy skits were developed from their dialogue.

The Encore Ensemble was made up of six sopranos, six altoes, six tenors and six basses.

The crowd viewed the productions from cafe style seating and was served refreshments.

TOP: Kim Biggs leads the cast through an exciting number. BOTTOM: Part of the cast watches performance.

Clubs-Committees

For its work in conservation and recycling, the Ecotactics club was selected as the best in the state of Oregon. Advisor Ken Becker and president John Van Gulik were invited to Washington, D.C. this summer for a week's conference.

Ecotactics was awarded a third place prize in national competition.

TOP: Recycling center became a very busy place this year as Ecotactics members made the community aware of the need for conservation. BOTTOM: Ecotactics president John Van Gulik tells about the purpose of the club during Club and Committee Day.

Clubs-Committees

PUBLICITY: It was in charge of all articles in the paper (L.O. Review and Lake Views), signs, posters, and announcements that advertised any school event that needed promotion. Kim Biggs was head of this committee.

SOCIAL: Denise Ehman and Patti Krug were the head socies. The committee helped organize dances and plan traditional activities such as Homecoming, Christmas, and May Fete. They worked in conjunction with So-Co Stacie Dodd.

ASSEMBLY: They worked on all assemblies this year. Marge Handy and Barb Stafford were in charge of planning traditional assemblies and thinking up new ones. They were in charge of setting up technical equipment and every script had to go through them first before it was shown to the student body.

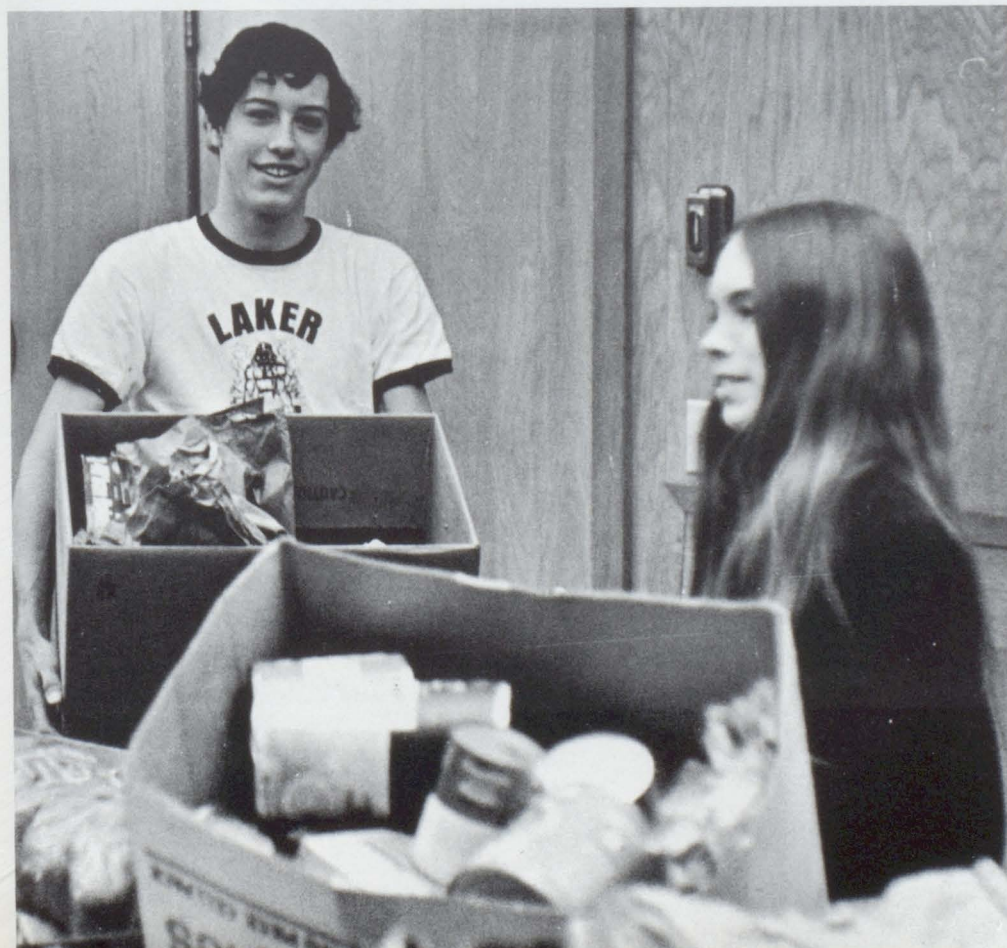

TRAFFIC: With Gary Morean in charge, the traffic committee dealt with organizing the various parking areas and stickers.

INTRAMURALS: They organized all after-school sport activities, such as volleyball, basketball, and tennis tournaments. Debbie Lawrence and Pam Stout headed this committee.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: They worked hard to get the school involved with many fund-raising activities and charitable work for the community. They organized the Thanksgiving baskets, Christmas Stockings, sold Circlets for the Kidney Association. Julie Knouse and Kathy Kamman were head of this industrious committee.

ELECTION: They dealt mainly with making ballots, taking votes during lunches, and counting them up after the election for Princess and Class Elections. Megan Brooke and Scott Rupprecht were in charge of this committee.

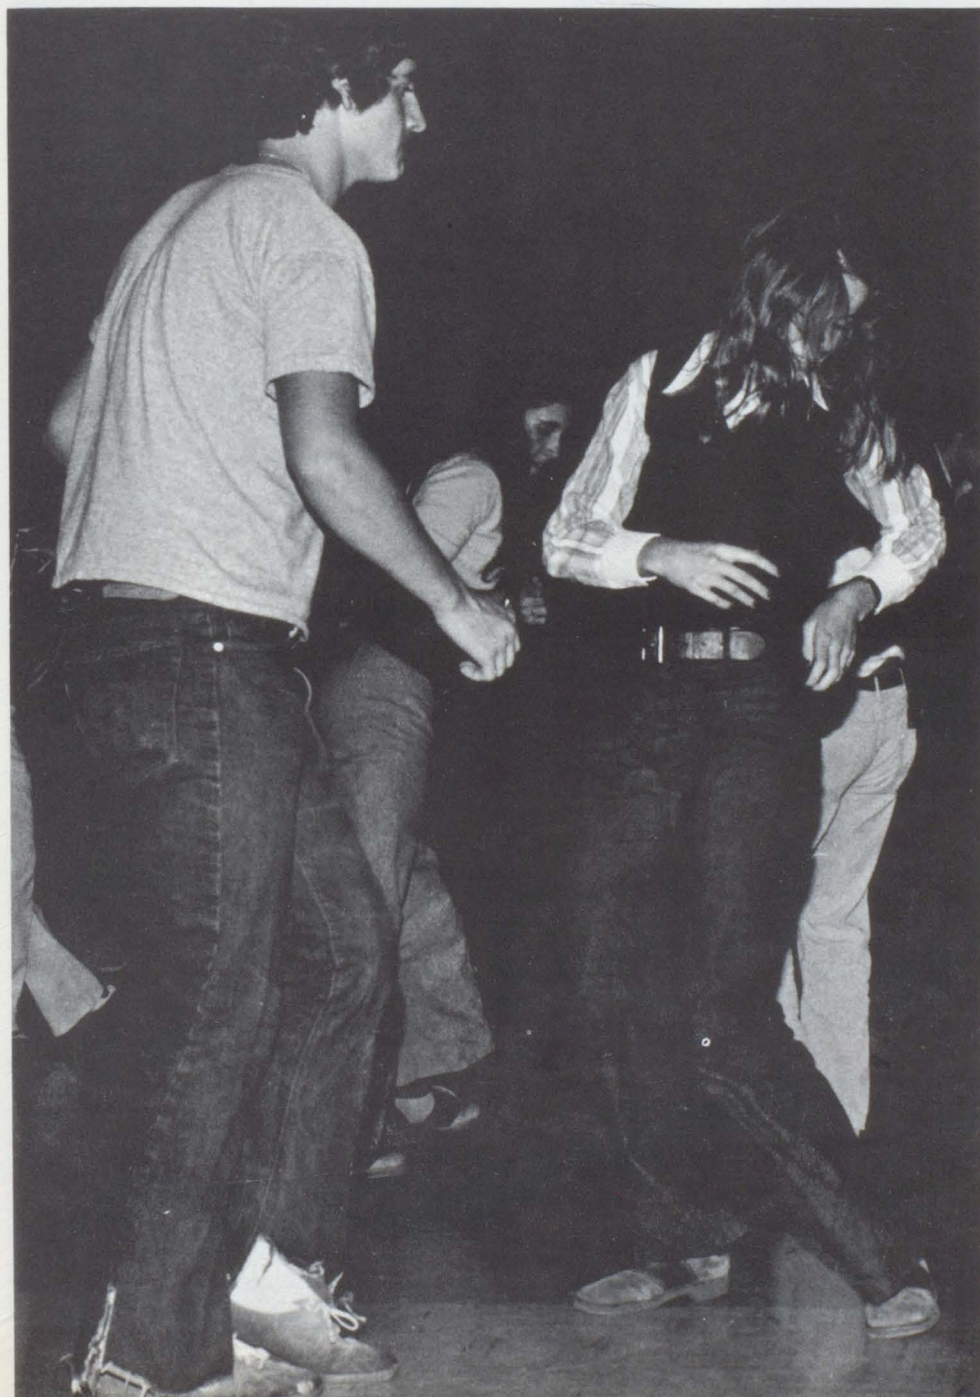

TOP: Ski lift at Mt. Hood was very popular on weekends as the Ski Club sponsored weekly busses to the slopes. (Inset) Patricia Harding. BOTTOM: Phil O'Leary and Kathy Smail help collect food to give needy people at Thanksgiving time.

BOTTOM: Quarterback Steve Bartelt hands off to Glen Long as Dale Long, Scott Baird and other Laker linemen clear out Oregon City rivals.

Varsity Football

LO 14, OREGON CITY 0 - The season opened on a happy note as the Lakers upset last year's Willamette Division champions. Steve Hincks returned a punt 66 yards for one touchdown. Dallas Ward, Ken Guy, and Eric Gassner all intercepted passes and Gassner also blocked a kick.

MILWAUKIE 21, LO 0 - Rod Smith got away on an 80-yard run and also scored again as the Lakers could not seem to do anything right, either on the ground or in the air. Luckily this was a crossover game and did not count in the standings.

REYNOLDS 26, LO 0 - It was an aerial circus as the Lancers completed 19 of 33 passes for 356 yards. LO didn't help itself any either, fumbling four times.

LO 7, HOOD RIVER VALLEY 6 - Kent Howe scored both the touchdown and the winning extra point as he finally went over the 100 yard mark, rushing for 113 yards. HRV, unwilling to settle for a tie, went for a 2-point conversion and failed.

LO 14, GRESHAM 3 - In the muddiest game of the year, played in a driving rainstorm, the Lakers outplayed their heavier and favored rivals. Eric Gassner tallied on a 43-yard pass from Steve Bartelt and Kent Howe bulled over from the one. Bill Hoffee, Glen Long, and Dallas Ward all intercepting, with Ward returning his 30 yards.

CENTENNIAL 16, LO 7 - The Lakers started out well by marching downfield and scoring in their opening drive, but from then on they just couldn't put anything together. Penalties at crucial times also hurt as did the loss by injury of Bob Rose, who had been averaging 15 yards per carry, and Les Scuito. Kent Howe and Bryn Torkelson each picked off an Eagle pass. Rose and Steve Hincks averaged 22 yards per kickoff return.

THE DALLES 21, LO 17 - The Lakers jumped out to an early lead by scoring the first time they had the ball. A blocked punt by Bill Hoffee led to another score as Dan Rustrum recovered in the Indian end zone. Then on the next drive the Lakers were stopped short of a TD, so Kent Howe booted a 15-yard field goal. But in the second half the eventual Columbia Division champions came back to defeat LO.

LO 29, BARLOW 0 - Two TD passes from junior QB Dave Claunch to Eric Gassner helped the Lakers score in every period but the second. Claunch was 4 for 9 for the game. TD's by Kent Howe and Bob Rose along with a safety by Dan Rustrum also helped out. The defense was superb as it held the Bruins to minus 23 yards rushing, while LO ran for 208. Dallas Ward intercepted three passes and Jim Mendenhall and Rick Hunt each grabbed one.

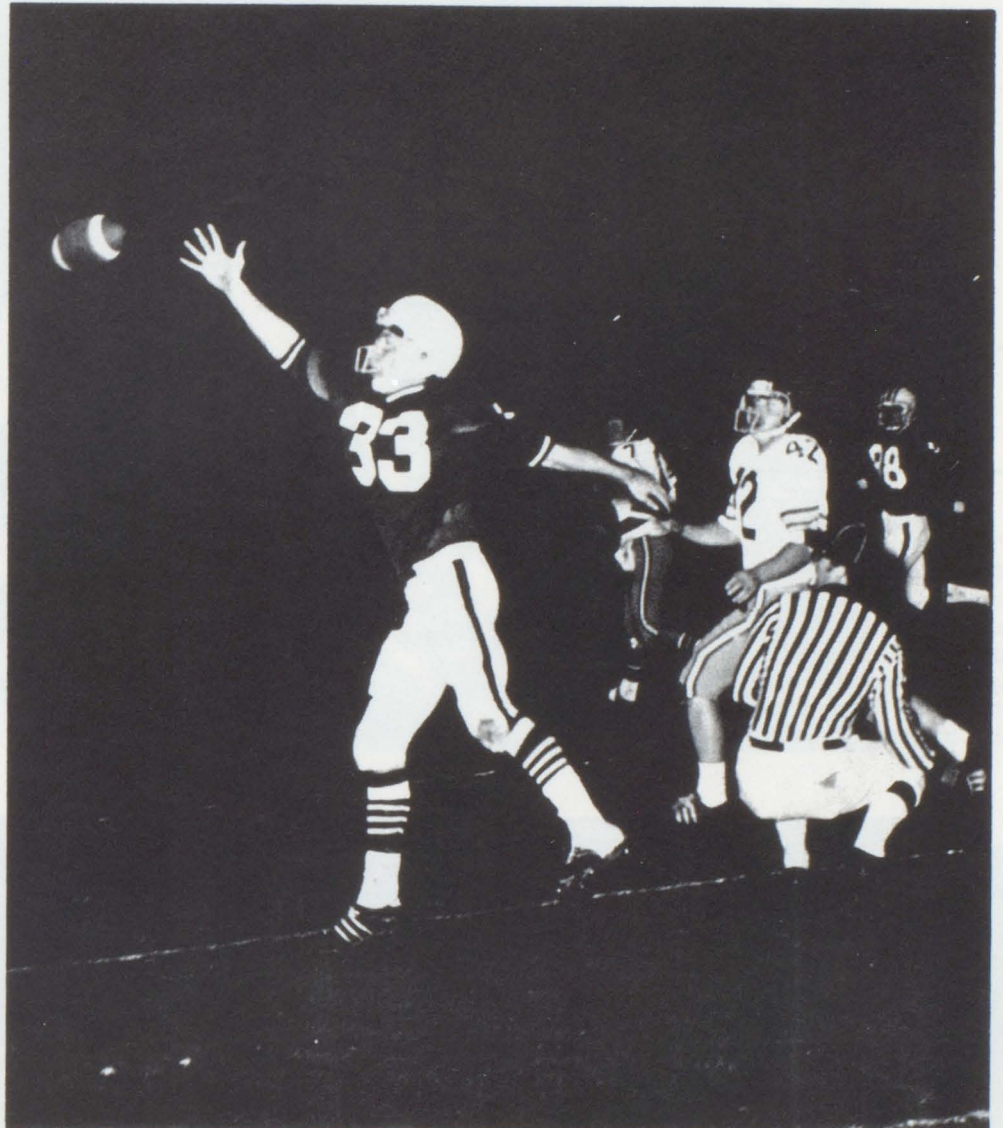

LO 13, WEST LINN 6 - The Lions jumped out to a 6-0 early lead in the first quarter and the rest of the game was scoreless until the final quarter when the Howe brothers went into action. Kent, the junior, and Steve, the sophomore, each scored once. Steve Howe's TD was set up on a pass interference call on the 10-yard line. The Howes accounted for 110 of the 142 yards LO gained.

Kent Howe led the team in scoring for the season with 57 points on 7 TD's, 12 PAT's, and 1 field goal. Eric Gassner scored 3 times for 18 points, while Steve Hincks, Dan Rustrum, Bob Rose, and Steve Howe all tallied once.

TOP: Glen Long reaches in vain for an overthrown pass. BOTTOM: Sophomore Steve Howe darts by Barlow defenders on a punt return. He tightroped the sidelines 60 yards for a TD, but a penalty nullified the score.

JV Football

Running backs Dan O'Brien, Chris Phifer, and George Ross all helped out in the constant battle against much larger opponents. And helping them along were sophomores Rick Powers, Bruce Farman, and Chris Stuckey at the offensive line against teams like The Dalles and Gresham. But because of the difference in size, they slightly overpowered LO.

Frosh Football

After losing by two points to Gresham in the first game, the "A" team won all its remaining games to finish at 6 wins and 1 loss. The "B" team ended a fine season with 4 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie.

The "A" team featured a strong offense, averaging 35 points a game. Their season included a 53-point performance against Reynolds. Meanwhile the "B" team relied on a tough defense for its victories.

Boys Gymnastics

In its second season, the boys' gymnastics team showed improvement, particularly in the achievement of several high meet scores. Many of the scores topped those of last year's team, the highest being 76.7 in competition with The Dalles.

Team leadership was provided by all-around performer Bruce Edwards and by Don Crump, who was a finalist at district in floor exercise.

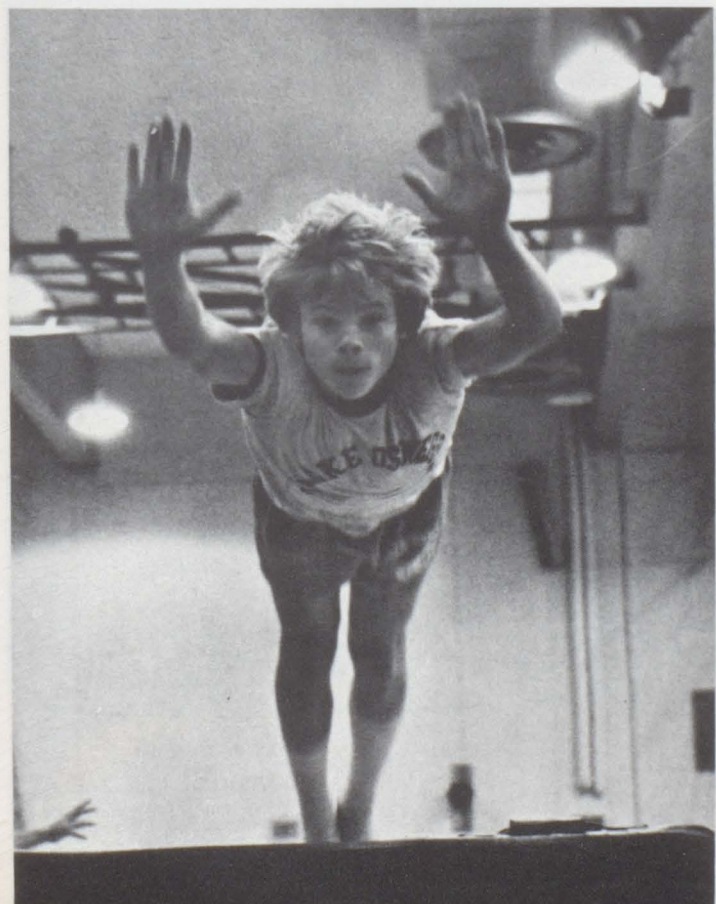

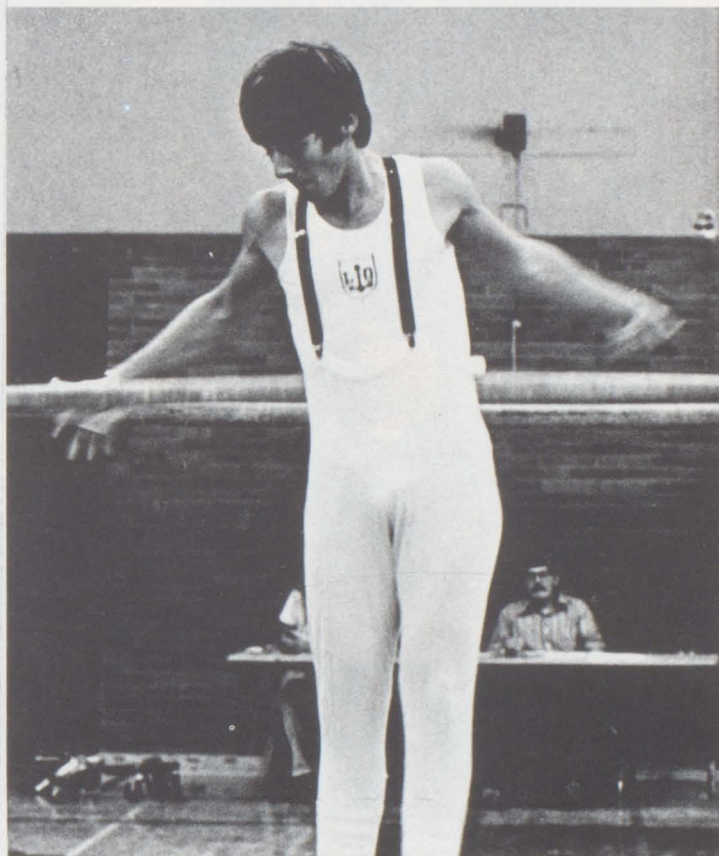

Other outstanding team performers were Dan Riedl and Mark Chin, on the rings, Grant Wilson on the side horse, and Chip Laizure on parallel bars.

Girls Gymnastics

In her second year of coaching the Laker girls' gymnastics team, Mrs. Cathy Holley directed the young and inexperienced team to a 2-win, 5-loss record. Even though it wasn't a winning record, the team had some high scoring wins against Barlow and Tigard.

The team was led by Judy Ralston, who was a district finalist in vaulting, and the two senior twins, Denise and Diane Ehman. Lisa Muller was the all around before her accident, and Amy Tassock and Margaret Wattman were other top point getters for the team.

Cross Country

Injuries to some key runners kept the LO team out of contention for the Wilco League championship. Injuries sidelined Sam Hutchinson, Bruce Mills, Peter Herbst, and Greg Putnam at one time or another.

Under new coach Mike Moorad, the runners had a 7-7 record. Runners with consistent low finishes were Steve Murphy, Bill Eklund and Jim Brown.

Soccer

LO started the season off by winning the state seven-man tournament. Included among their victims was the Washington state championship team from Olympia.

LO came in third in league behind Bishop Dagwell and Lakeridge. The highlight of the season was the placing of two men, Rob Blyth and Henrik Voldbaek, on the Oregon State Soccer Association All-State team.

The team was made up of 13 seniors and one junior, Owen Shackelton.

JV Basketball

They had a very successful season. They posted 21 wins against a single loss and ran off a 17-consecutive games winning streak. Lanky Paul Halladin had one of the better field goal percentages with 56%, while sophomore Dave Bowers was 77% at the free throw line.

Mark Stenberg and Dave Claunch's tough defense along with their floor leadership helped the team to many victories. As a team, they shot 49% from the field and averaged 52.7 points a game while holding their opponents to just 33.7.

Soph Basketball

Frosh Basketball

The Frosh White basketball team was led in scoring this year by Dick Butterfield, who averaged 15.2 points per game. Scott Reay was the floor leader while Jim Walston, Duncan Dodd, and Stewart Gaussoin were also valuable players.

Wrestling

TOP: Greg Anderson looks for a way to get out of predicament. BOTTOM: Action was always fast and furious at wrestling meets.

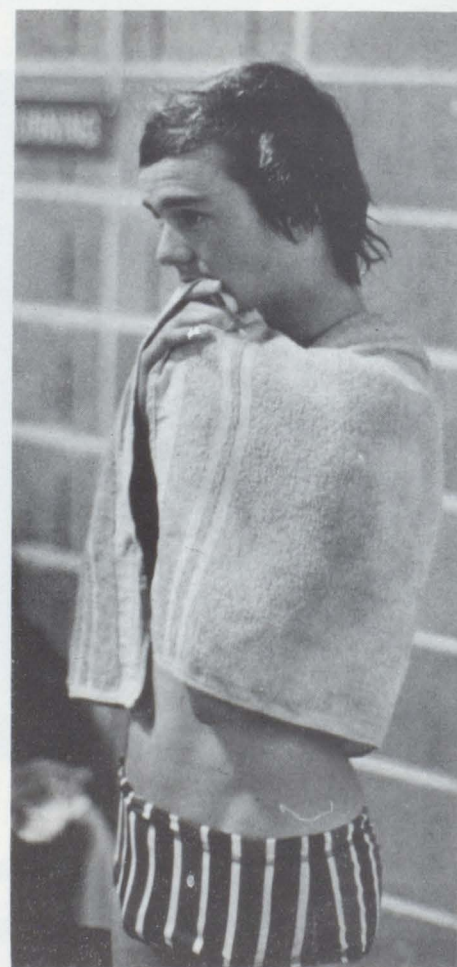

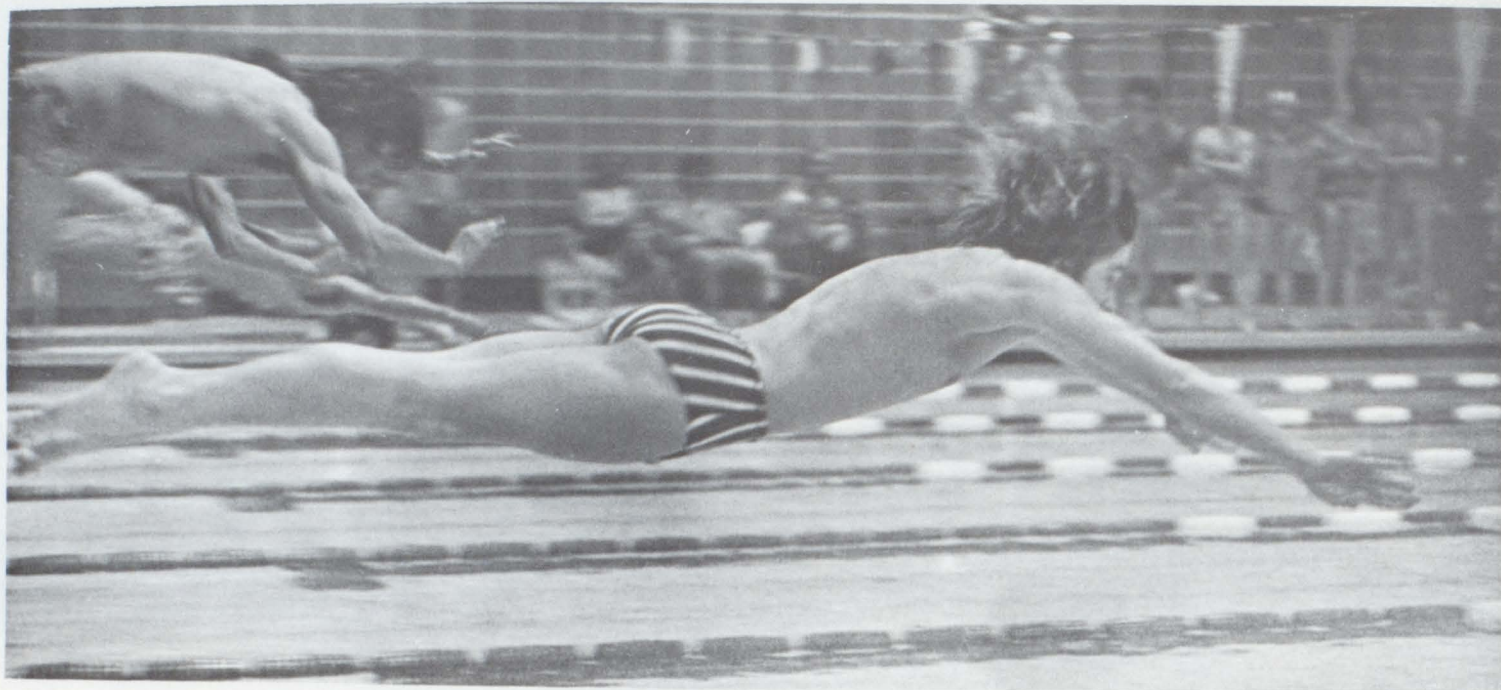

Lacking a large turnout, the wrestling team had to forfeit three of four weights each meet. Consequently, they had to settle for only one victory this year, but that came over Lakeridge.

Nobody qualified for state but Dallas Ward, Randy Lu, and Mike Anderson did place at district. Only four seniors will graduate, and several promising underclassmen return.

With only one graduating senior on the team, the girls are really looking forward to next year. They only compiled a 3-3-1 record this year, but a couple of the very close meets could have gone the other way and they would have been 5-2.

Captain Lisa Child grabbed ninth at state in the 100 backstroke, and she teamed with Karen Ream, Sharon Ruminiski, and freshman Kathy O'Neel for 11th place in 200 medley relay.

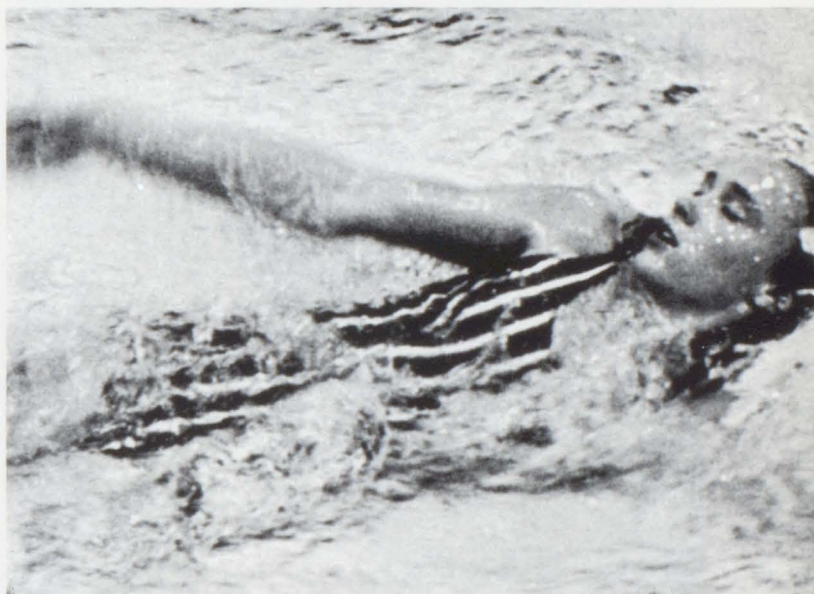

Junior Debbie Fifer also competed at state in diving until an injury stopped short her chances.

Boys Skiing

The Boy's Ski Team went on a gradual climb to beat one of their rivals, Lakeridge, to second place position in the district.

Their bid for State was hindered by lack of experience and injuries of three of the leading five skiers, Gary Harding, Chris Knowes and Trent Kammon.

They gained valuable experience and preparation for 1975.

Girls Skiing

Lack of experience stopped the girls from getting better results.

The girls on the team were new to ski racing this year. Sophomore Martha Deal led the team in times. Seniors Louise Underdahl and Patrice Howard tried to back her up, but the freshman girls, Liz Knowles and Susan Drinkward were not to be left behind.

Boys Track

Ken Guy, who never even competed in track as a sophomore, had a fine year as he led the Lakers to a 6-2 dual meet record. Guy also lowered the school record in the quarter mile to 48.6. He wasn't able to equal that time a week later at state, however, and placed fourth behind three more experienced runners although the winning time was the very same - 48.6.

Hurdler Scott Rupprecht and Bob Hinkle in the long jump also qualified for state as did the 440 and mile relay teams.

Girls Track

Toni Burke from the junior high came across the road every afternoon to coach the girls' track team.

Sophomore Sue Kirschbaum made it to state for the second year in a row in her favorite event, the javelin. She was joined this time by Kim Bilben in the high jump.

Varsity Baseball

Big win for the year was the 4-3 triumph over Lakeridge.

Rob Blyth doubled, advanced on Bob Rose's single, and then scored on Steve Bartelt's hit to tie the game. In the second inning Barry Schrimsher walked, Art Cataldo singled, and Blyth banged out a 3-run homer to win the game. He only allowed three hits against the eventual state champions and struck out 7 Pacers.

After being knocked out of title contention, the Lakers played the spoiler role. Late in the season they upset defending state champion, The Dalles, 3-2, forcing the Indians into a playoff with Gresham for the title. Naturally Blyth again did the job.

TOP: To help the team out, Art Cataldo switched from catcher to third base this year. BOTTOM: The Pacers' Steve Newell is fast, but he couldn't beat this throw. First baseman, Tony Dahl, already has the ball for the out.

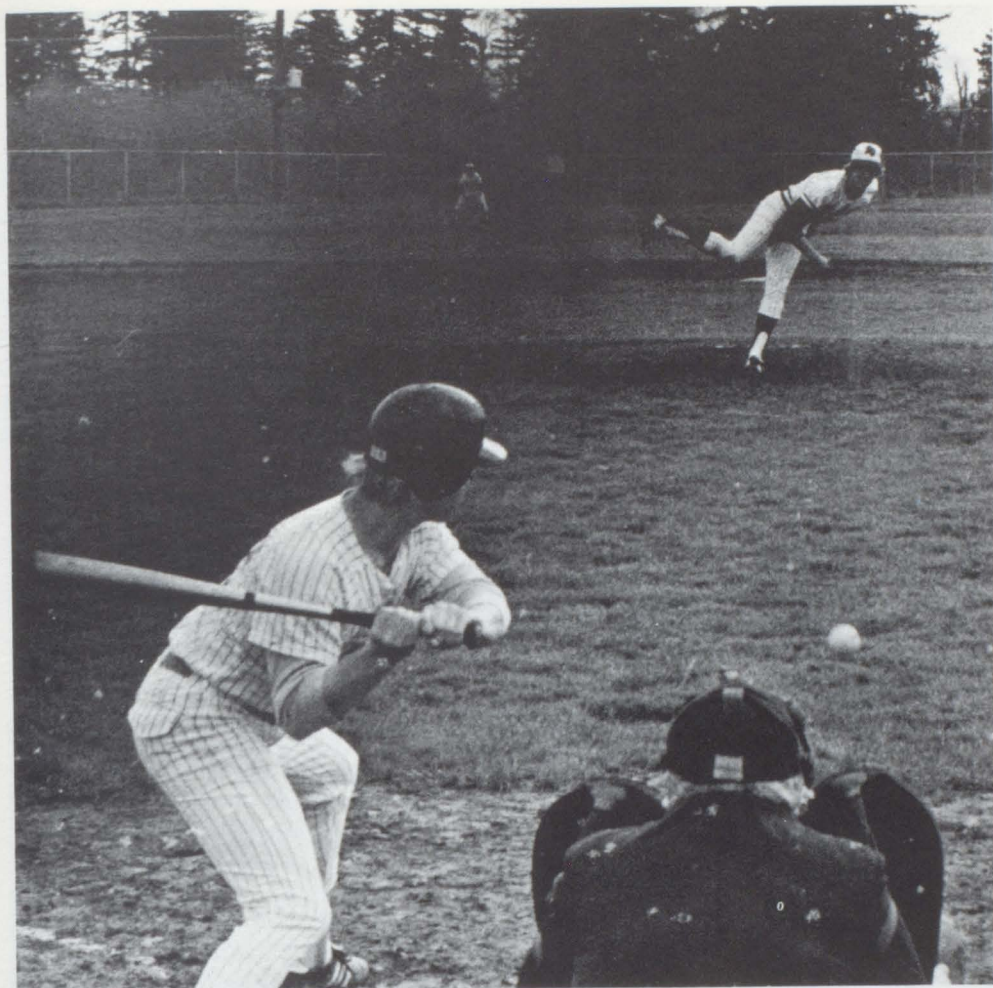

LEFT: Tim Colton starts his swing. RIGHT: Part of the crowd that watched the inter-city battle between LO and Lakeridge. Lake-ridge went on to win state, but they lost to the Lakers, 4-3, this afternoon. BOTTOM: Third base is plenty busy with Reynolds runners coming from both directions. Dave Claunch managed to get runner coming back from home. Shortstop is John Stageberg.

Varsity Baseball

Rob Blyth's fine batting (.393) and pitching (7-1, 1.67 ERA) topped the team in statistics as the Lakers finished even with 9 wins, 9 losses. Early in the year they led the Columbia division, but the hitting and pitching did not hold up.

Boys Tennis

For the third year in a row, the Lakers went undefeated in dual competition with a 14-0 record. It makes the third straight year they have won the Wilco tennis title and extends their record to 39 consecutive victories.

District ended on a slightly sour note as Dave Wolfard was upset in the finals and Trent Kamman could not compete because of illness. Wolfard lost his first round at state, but then he won the next four to grab the consolation singles championship.

Girls Tennis

They won the Wilco League championship with a nifty 9-won, 1-lost record. Junior Katie Wilson was a finalist in district qualifying for state, but she lost her first round at state.

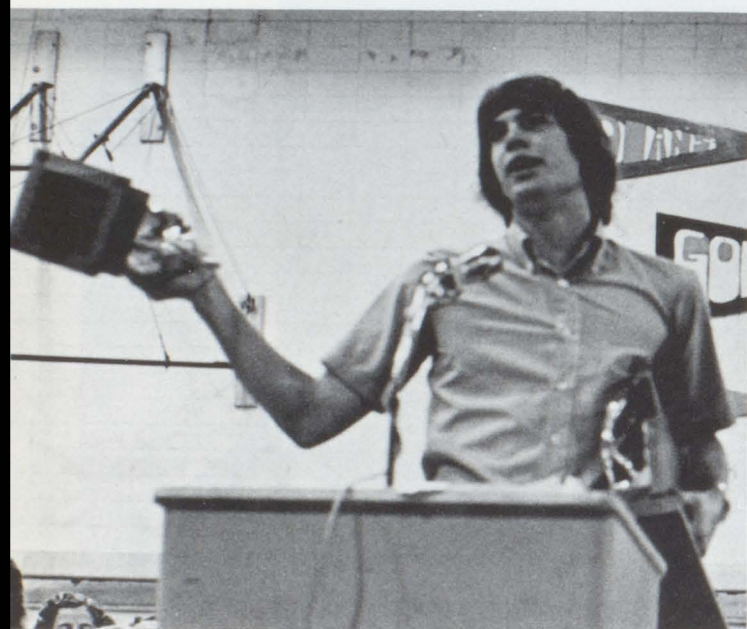

Seniors Lecia Olsen and Amy Paget were co-captains.

TOP: Spring rains frequently forced the tennis teams inside, but they still managed to practice in the gyms. Katie Wilson gets ready to serve. She qualified for state.

Boys Golf

The boys' golf team finished second in the state golf tournament for the second year in a row. The team was led in state and throughout the season by senior Rod Livesay. Rod made the all-state team by finishing fourth in state and made the Columbia Division All Star team. The team that went to state was seniors Rod Livesay, Don Wiens, and John Ford with junior Casey Skopil.

The team had two big disappointments, losing to Lakeridge and Centennial. Both matches were close and were lost in the late holes.

Other players on the golf team were John Ward, Todd Stucky and Pete Jennings. These three, along with the others, helped the boys' golf team win Redmond, Upstate, Lake Oswego Invitational, and District and to finish second in state.

Speech

Junior Bruce Mills won the Clackamas county district United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth contest. He, along with 19 other winners from Oregon, will travel to the nation's capital and to Philadelphia to areas where the nation's history was visit areas where the nation's history was forged. The trip will last three weeks.

The title of his winning speech was "Obstacles to Successful Actions by the United Nations."

Mills was an integral part of the speech team this year as were Doug Kupel, Kevin Hillier, Nancy Wheeler, Lisa Wilberding, and others. This year the speech team started bringing home trophies from wherever it competed, and it appears that Coach Jim Patrick's long, hard work is finally starting to pay off.

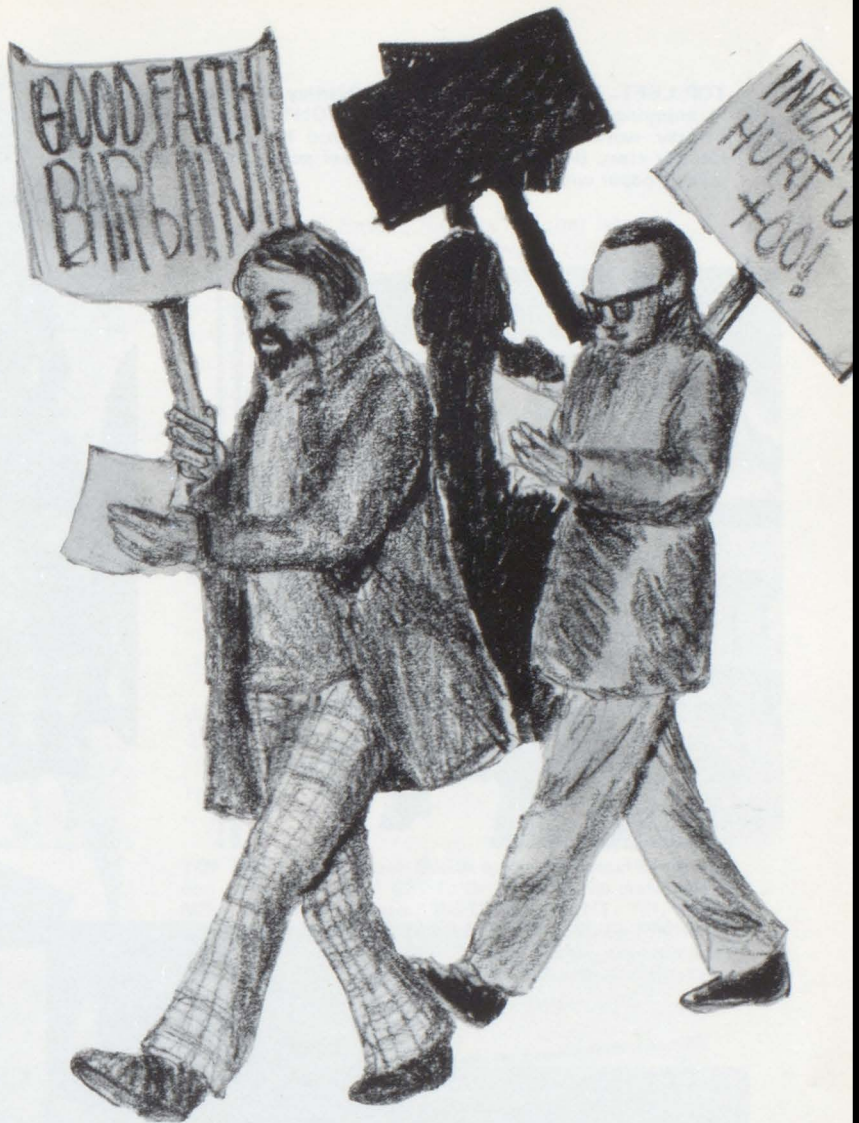

TOP: Victorious speech team. Row 1 - Anna Brossard. Row 2 - Shirley Hitchcock, Geri Albright, Carolyn Ball, David Derhalli, Jim Pearson, Susan Slape, Nancy Wheeler, Lisa Wilberding, Bruce Mills, and Luci Wise. LEFT: Henrik Voldbaek shared disc jockey duties with Scott Raymore. They played records and tapes every morning before school on KPUT.

Mr. Chuck Smith, biology teacher here the last six years, was named Oregon Science Teacher of the year. Besides getting a $700 microscope, he will also have his name entered as a candidate for the National Science Teacher of the Year.

Smith said that all the science teachers here deserved credit for the award. "I feel that the award is a reflection of the hard work and good teaching carried on throughout the science department here."

He emphasized that biology teaches about the environment and man's relation in it, and that if people were acquainted with sound biological principles, the environmental situation would not have become as bad as it is now.

In his classes, the greatest emphasis is put on work in the laboratory, where students can work in groups to discover things for themselves instead of just being lectured at.

Chief photographer Tim James and his top aide, sophomore Steve Browning, shot a record 301 rolls of film this year in an effort to provide the editors with the best possible choice of pictures.

Unlike previous yearbooks, the sport team pictures are all grouped at the close of the book to provide more action shots on the layout. Gang captions were also used for the first time this year to enhance the design. Vertical heads were another new addition to the '74 yearbook, as well as 8 more pages than last year.

To satisfy most Lakers, unhappy with last year's cover, the editors decided to return to the traditional blue.

A VERY SPECIAL

Thanks
